Re: United States v. Alexander Hernandez
Dkt.: 21 Cr 519

Application granted. Defendant Hernandez may have until 9/27/21 to satisfy the conditions of bail

SO ORDERED.

CATHY SEIBEL, U.S.D.J.

9/22/21

Dear Judge Seibel:

I am the attorney for the defendant Alexander Hernandez. With the consent of the Government, I request that Mr. Hernandez be allowed until Monday, September 27, 2021 to complete the requirement to have two co-signors of his bond. Currently, he was to have this issue completed today.

We have identified two signors for the bond, and the Government has interviewed one of them and anticipates the second will be interviewed tomorrow. Both live in Florida, near the defendant, and are native Spanish speakers, so the interviews require an interpreter to also participate in the Zoom process. The Court docketed the bond this afternoon, so once the co-signors have been approved, they will travel to a federal courthouse in Florida in their district, be sworn by the local clerk of court, and execute the bond. Once that issue is satisfied, the terms and conditions will be fully complete as everything else is done.

I thank the Court for its consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
